SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS

(Be sure and read this page. It only takes three minutes.)

All lots are carefully attributed, guaranteed genuine, and grade will be found as noted.

Be sure to enter on bid sheet correct lot number and BID BY LOT IN ALL CASES. List prices after each item represent the present value of the lots listed. They are not reserve prices, and you must use your own judgment what you wish to bid.

Unlimited bids will be accepted and usually insure your getting the coin desired at lowest possible price. They should be sent in immediately on receiving the catalogue. Every issue I receive many such bids which come too late, as some other collector has got in ahead of them.

The terms of this sale are cash promptly on receipt of goods. Remit in whatever way is most convenient. Successful bidders will be notified immediately after sale and coins shipped at once, if credit references are O.K. There is no charge for executing bids, but postage on shipments is added to invoice. I frequently put invoice in with parcel of coins. If your bids are not successful, you will always receive a post card immediately notifying you of that fact.

If you are bidding for the first time, put references on back of bid sheet. If you have bid at my sales and failed to secure the items desired, write me and I will be glad to look up your sheet and tell you where the trouble is. There is much to learn in making bids at mail auction sales.

You are much more likely to be successful in a strictly mail sale than one where a public auction is held the last day, as any one on the floor can bid a few cents over your mail bid and secure the lot. Often a 10 cent bid will lose the item, where you might have been glad to have it at the increased price. It is always a very good idea to bid close to list value or over.

GOOD SUGGESTION—If you only send four to six bids, put on bottom or back of bid sheet a second selection of as many bids as you wish. These SECONDS will not be entered on my bid book and only used if you fail to secure some or all first entered. In no case will the total amount be more than your original bids. Quite often I have items on which there are no bids. I like to see every bidder get something.

Next sale will be in July and already a half dozen prominent collectors have expressed a desire to send me some choice material. Be sure to tell your friends to ask for a catalogue if interested. I would like particularly some fairly complete series of dates from the earliest on. I am constantly offered material for which the demand is extremely limited. Write me what you have to dispose of and will give you the benefit of my ten years experience with auctions.

FOREIGN GOLD

I think in the future I will list foreign gold by countries as far as possible or by continents which will likely be more acceptable to my patrons. I am in the market to buy any really choice material and in quantity. Send me a list of what you have to offer or if you prefer send it for listing in my catalogue.

Choice selections of Ancient, Foreign or USA gold are solicited. I get for my patrons as high average prices as anyone in the country and higher than most of them. The main reason is entire confidence. Nearly all go to private patrons who are building up extensive collections and know what they want. The finer the grade the better the price, as quality is long remembered after price is forgotten. My expert service at a total cost to you of 10%.

Numismatic Chatter

While I did not expect anything unusual to happen in the March auction, there is always pleasant surprises. Thanks to the very large number of active bidders, it was one of the best I have had and you are entitled to all the credit. Every single day someone writes me of coins they wish to sell and I get real satisfaction from same. They always get a prompt reply and free advice.

Here are what some of the fine coins in last sale sold for:—

No. 1—$115.33-$30.50—112, 114, 118 $18 each —133 $50—139 $50—140 $70 154 $16.50—155 $22.50—173 $45.50—187 $40—197 $75—206 $85—252 $49—254 $58—328, 329, 330, 331 each at $65 full list. 442 $31.75—443 $81.50—447 $45—479 $37—480 $12—481 $10.60—482 $45—483 $27—484 $17—485 $40—486 $15—487 $42—488 $21—489 $36—494 $10.50—743 $50.20—744 $50.15—745 $30.10—954 $10.25—959 $12—961 $20—967 $11.50—982 $10.25—983 $12.75—1086 $33—1087 $45—1088 $40—1089 $11.50—1090 $40—1092 $40—1093 $32—1094 $45—1102 $63—1369 $28.50—1370 $20—1371 $18—1372 $12—1379. $16.50—1446 $57.50—Large numbers of the less expensive lots went at full list or over.

When you receive this catalogue I will be in Florida. I expect to motor down April 1st and be back May 1st so if any of you write and fail to get a quick reply, remember I have not taken a day's rest in 5 years. What happened is this:— My granddaughter who is about as big as a Boston cracker had a boy of 4 and expected another baby, which she was sure would be a girl, and had a fine name all picked out. What she got was two more boys. My wife said she just had to see those twins. I tell her all babies look alike but she don't think so.

My youngest grandson just back from five years of war took a shine to my red Ford de luxe coupe which had only been driven 16,000 miles so I gave it to him and he is now very happy running up the mileage I suppose. It is quite a change from the Jeeps he has been driving so long. When I tried to get a new car, no dice. I had to take an old timer, but the motor hums merrily, so I expect we will get down and back OK.

I have had it in my head for some time to run an exclusive gold auction at least once or twice a year. Would like to hear from any collectors of gold what they think of it. Cannot you pass me out some good advice? I should have at least one decent collection of 400 or 500 pieces to go with what I can easily get together myself. Would like to pull off a good one in September. Write me if you have any gold duplicates you would consider selling or putting in my auction at above date. We have two months to think it over.

One of my patrons in last auction marked on bottom of his bid sheet that he was spending the winter in Florida. His wife had found one of my shell books and they had been spending all their time collecting shells. Now we are trying to name the darn things. I wrote him a good fatherly letter telling him my first experience with shells. I bought 50 barrels of conch shells from Bahamas. I was only about 21 and when they came, I found the freight was more than the shells had cost me but I finally dug up the dough. Then I cleaned them up and got stands at all the nearby county fairs, selling those big 10 inch shells with the brilliant pink lip for 25ct each. I bet every one of them is still in the old farm houses, as their favorite use was on the floor as a door stop. If the old man came down in the dark and stubbed his toe on one of them, it was all part of life in those days. There is nothing quite like a nature hobby. When I went to the West Indies and South America a few years ago I spent most of my time in the Botanical Gardens jotting down the Latin names of all trees and bushes that interested me, and then when I got home, many an evening was spent reading up on them in my set of Bailey's Encyclopedae of Horticulture.
